COURSE DESCRIPTION
This course is an introduction to the study of Indigenous peoples in Canada with links to Indigenous peoples in other parts of the world. Students will be encouraged to see the Indigenous world through a set of multiple lenses and to develop a more multifaceted understanding of Indigenous societies, the issues that they are facing, how they are dealing with them and the relationship between Indigenous and non-Indigenous peoples and societies.

Utilizing global, regional and local examples, the student will acquire a fundamental understanding of some of the main issues that affect Indigenous peoples in Canada and around the world. The course will explore Indigenous people’s histories, world views and contemporary realities.

The course will incorporate a multi-disciplinary approach of study, including the frameworks of history, sociology, anthropology, economics, linguistics, political studies, cultural studies, critical theory, among others to examine and analyze the current issues, structures and processes of Indigenous life.

Topics to be discussed include:
- Indigenous Peoples, historical context and current issues
- Indigenous Cultural Identity and Representation
- Economic and Social Development Issues

COURSE OBJECTIVES
- To instill in the student an international orientation to Indigenous peoples and the challenges Indigenous peoples face.
• To increase the student’s awareness of, understanding of, and respect for Indigenous worldviews and perspectives, knowledge, realities, experiences, and cultures from around the world.

• To introduce the student to ways of knowing that fall outside the western scientific precepts.

• To demonstrate insights about Indigenous realities from a multi-disciplinary approach (e.g., history, sociology, anthropology, political science, economics, and literature) to the field of Indigenous Studies.

• To give the student experience at critically thinking and analyzing Indigenous peoples’ experiences within a historical and contemporary context.

• To develop in the student an understanding of colonialism, and the diverse and enduring impacts upon Indigenous people, and the commonalities it creates among Indigenous peoples.

• To increase knowledge of the legacy of the colonial relationship between Indigenous and Settler societies.

• To expand understanding of the concepts of Indigenous and de-colonization.

CLASS STRUCTURE AND INSTRUCTION METHODS

The course draws from a mixture of Western and Indigenous knowledge. Methods include short lectures, videos, class discussions, student presentations via Zoom and course D2L site. The lectures provide the basic course material.

Note: Readings for the scheduled day need to be read prior to class.

The course syllabus and schedule may be altered throughout the term to accommodate emerging issues and events.

REQUIRED TEXTBOOKS AND ASSIGNED READINGS

Assigned Readings and links will be posted on D2L.

Communication

I will respond to emails within 48 hours but not on weekends or holidays.
ASSIGNMENTS AND EVALUATION

Quiz #1 via D2L 15%
Quiz #2 Take Home Exam - D2L 15%
Group Research Project and Discussion Questions 30%
Class Participation 10%
Final Project-Podcast 30%

Quiz #1 – access via D2L- 15% - May 19

We will be discussing many points of view, personal experiences, Indigenous cultures, and different ways of viewing societal structures. The quiz will consist of short answer questions based on readings, media presentations (film & audio), lectures and discussions. Coverage: all readings and class material to May 19

Quiz #2- Take Home 15 % - Due June 3 by midnight (11:59 p.m.) in Dropbox via course D2L.

The quiz will be a 4-6-page essay based on a question related to the course readings, media presentations (film & audio), lectures and discussions. Coverage: all readings and class material to June 2.

Submission: via the digital Dropbox in the course’s D2L site.

Individual Participation - 10%

Participation is deemed as engaging in class discussion and active participation in group learning. This course will be highly interactive and will include synchronous and asynchronous opportunities for active engagement during each class session, including organized discussions, debates, small group work, etc. that will be via course D2L. Your participation and responses will be graded based on the consistency and thoughtfulness of your contributions and should highlight students understanding and learning of course objectives and materials.

Students must post a minimum of one post per “Discussion” thread, within the designated time frame for each of the threads and for a total of 10 different discussion threads. The “discussion question” will be posted by the Instructor on D2L. The individual responses are to highlight student’s understanding and learning of course objectives and materials.

Group Research Project and Discussion Questions - 30% collective grade –
June 4, 9, 11 & 16

The class will be given a list of topics to research and you may choose one and form a group based on your choice. Group members are responsible for a research project that will focus on the development and presentation of a formal and in-class oral presentation on your chosen topic. The presentation will examine a historical and/or contemporary issue/topic that is related to Indigenous peoples. Please ensure that your topic incorporates the course objectives. Students will be required to research and develop a 30 - 45 minute presentation which will include discussion questions. The presentation will be completed via Zoom on the course D2L site (live and recorded) and should be a power point, web project, art piece or any other appropriate presentational approach. Reference materials should be incorporated in the presentation utilizing APA format.

Please utilize the same font throughout the presentation.

The presentation must critically examine and analyze an issue facing Indigenous people and explore the impact on them from a historical and contemporary perspective. (e.g. colonization, globalization, Indigenous Rights)

You and your group members will need to discuss your project with me by May 19

You and your group members will be responsible for developing three discussion questions and a thorough and accurate response to the questions.

The Group presentation requires at least 8 references which must be from academic sources. Reference materials should be incorporated in the presentation and synopsis utilizing APA or MLA format.

Individuals can develop and record sections separately and merge them together for a complete presentation. Students can utilize whatever software and hardware they agree upon to work together and upload a completed presentation to the course D2L site.

Failure by a student to participate in the Group presentation assignment will result in a failing grade.

Final Project – 30 % - Podcast- Reflective learning. Due June 22 via D2L

Student’s will develop a 20-minute Podcast or Vodcast that is a self-reflection piece that will highlight their self-awareness and understanding of their own cultural frames of reference when analyzing their learning of Indigeneity and Indigenous Studies. The reflection exercise requires a student to express what they think, and more significantly, how and why they think that way based on course readings, film & audio, lectures, discussions and their own course work. Students must submit an accompanying bibliography which details the sources of the information relayed in the podcast. The Instructor will be the only person that will have access to the students’ work.

The podcast software can be found for free at: https://www.audacityteam.org/download/
This assignment will take up to several hours to complete and is best done in stages and not in a single sitting.

Questions that will help you begin your reflective learning piece in a podcast format:

#1 - What was the most interesting thing you learned in INDG 201 and why does it stick out in your mind?

#2 - What was the most confusing information, issue or concept you encountered and what confused you?

#3 - Were you able to resolve your confusion? If so, how? If not, why not?

#4 - Examining your responses to these questions, what concepts learned in the course best illustrate what might have been going on for you. Be detailed.

#5 - What advice would you give a friend planning to take INDG 201? Be specific.

Suggested methodology

Look at the questions and the course objectives, jot notes about how your major assignments impacted your experience and learning and how major concepts inform your understandings. Revisit the questions and course objectives and develop your answers and provide specifics that will illustrate your answers. The podcast/vodcast should analyze your learning of the course concepts and the relationship to the course objectives.

Penalties

Assignments received after midnight of the due date will be considered ‘late’, thereafter, students will lose 2 marks per day. Please refer also to the policies on deferring term work on this outline and in D2L.

Course work Submissions for Indigenous Studies

All course work submissions for Indigenous Studies such as assignments, papers, take home final exams and other course work related to this program of study should be submitted via D2L.

Writing Statement

Written assignments are often required in Indigenous Studies courses, including this one, and the quality of writing skills, including but not limited to such elements as grammar, punctuation, sentence structure, clarity, citation, and organization, will be considered in the determination of grades. Students are encouraged to make use of the services offered through Writing Support Services in the Student Success Centre (3rd floor of the Taylor Family Digital Library) or at http://www.ucalgary.ca/ssc/writing-support
GRADE SCALE

The International Indigenous Studies Program uses the percentage conversion scale below. Your final grade will be converted to the University’s official 4-point scale at the end of term. The interpretation of the undergraduate university grading system can be found at http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/f-1.html.

These are the grade ranges and specific numeric values I assign to letter grades on D2L. Any individual assignment grade is concerted to the mid-point value of the grade range and then weighted accordingly. Although the A+ is solely and honorific than entails no additional points in the four-point system, I will use this mark to distinguish superlative work that exceeds expectations in style, intellectual depth and breadth, sophistication, creativity and originality.

IMPORTANT POLICIES AND INFORMATION

Supporting Documentation and the Use of a Statutory Declaration

As stated in the University Calendar:

Students may be asked to provide supporting documentation for an exemption/special request. This may include, but is not limited to, a prolonged absence from a course where participation is required, a missed course assessment, a deferred examination, or an appeal. Students are encouraged to submit documentation that will support their situation. Supporting documentation may be dependent on the reason noted in their personal statement/explanation provided to explain their situation. This could be medical certificate/documentation, references, police reports, invitation letter, third party letter of support or a statutory declaration etc. The decision to provide supporting documentation that best suits the situation is at the discretion of the student. Students cannot be required to provide specific supporting documentation, such as a medical note.

Students can make a Statutory Declaration as their supporting documentation (available at ucalgary.ca/registrar). This requires students to make a declaration in the presence of a Commissioner for Oaths. It demonstrates the importance of honest and accurate information provided and is a legally binding declaration. Several registered Commissioners for Oaths are... available to students at no charge, on campus. For a list of locations to access a Commissioners for Oaths, visit ucalgary.ca/registrar.

Falsification of any supporting documentation will be taken very seriously and may result in disciplinary action through the Academic Discipline regulations or the Student Non-Academic Misconduct policy.

This statement is accessible at: https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/m-1.html

Please note that while the form of supporting documentation provided is at the discretion of the student, the instructor has the discretion not to accept the supporting documentation if it does not corroborate the reason(s) given for the exemption/special request.

Absence From a Mid-term Examination:

Students who are absent from a scheduled term test or quiz for legitimate reasons are responsible for contacting the instructor via email within 48 hours of the missed test to discuss alternative arrangements. A copy of this email may be requested as proof of the attempt to contact the instructor. Any student who fails to do so forfeits the right to a makeup test.

Deferral of a Final Examination:

Deferral of a final examination can be granted for reasons of illness, domestic affliction, and unforeseen circumstances, as well as to those with three (3) final exams scheduled within a 24-hour period. Deferred final exams will not be granted to those who sit the exam, who have made travel arrangements that conflict with their exam, or who have misread the examination timetable. The decision to allow a deferred final exam rests not with the instructor but with Enrolment Services. Instructors should, however, be notified if you will be absent during the examination. The Application for Deferred Final Exam, deadlines, requirements and submission instructions can be found on the Enrolment Services website at https://www.ucalgary.ca/registrar/exams/deferred-exams.

Appeals:

If a student has a concern about the course or a grade they have been assigned, they must first discuss their concerns with the instructor. If this does not resolve the matter, the student then proceed with an academic appeal. The first step in an academic appeal is to set up a meeting with the Department Head. Appeals must be requested within 15 days of receipt of the graded assignment.

Student Accommodations:

Students seeking an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services; SAS will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. For additional information on support services and accommodations for students with disabilities, visit www.ucalgary.ca/access/.

Students who require an accommodation in relation to their coursework based on a protected ground other than disability should communicate this need in writing to their Instructor.

University Regulations:
Students are responsible for familiarizing themselves with the University policies found in the Academic Regulations sections of the Calendar at www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/academic-regs.html.

Plagiarism And Other Forms Of Academic Misconduct:
Academic misconduct in any form (e.g. cheating, plagiarism) is a serious academic offence that can lead to disciplinary probation, suspension or expulsion from the University. Students are expected to be familiar with the standards surrounding academic honesty; these can be found in the University of Calgary calendar at http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k-5.html. Such offences will be taken seriously and reported immediately, as required by Faculty of Arts policy.

Copyright Legislation:
As stated in the University of Calgary Calendar, Academic Regulations, “students are required to read the University of Calgary policy on Acceptable Use of Material Protected by Copyright and requirements of the copyright act to ensure they are aware of the consequences of unauthorised sharing of course materials (including instructor notes, electronic versions of textbooks etc.). Students who use material protected by copyright in violation of this policy may be disciplined under the Non-Academic Misconduct Policy.”

Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy (FOIP):
FOIP legislation requires that instructors maintain the confidentiality of student information. In practice, this means that student assignment and tests cannot be left for collection in any public place without the consent of the student. It also means that grades cannot be distributed via email. Final exams are kept by instructors but can be viewed by contacting them or the main office in the Department of Political Science. Any uncollected assignments and tests meant to be returned will be destroyed after six months from the end of term; final examinations are destroyed after one year.

Evacuation Assembly Points:
In the event of an emergency evacuation from class, students are required to gather in designated assembly points. Please check the list found at www.ucalgary.ca/emergencyplan/assemblypoints and note the assembly point nearest to your classroom.

Faculty of Arts Program Advising and Student Information Resources:
