COURSE DESCRIPTION

How do we start to make sense of the complexity of world politics?

On one hand, globalization seems to have reduced the relevance of the nation-state while improving the prospects for humanity: the proportion of extreme poor across the planet is lower than ever and, through transportation and communication technologies, nearly everyone can be in contact with everyone else. On the other hand, we face acute global challenges including armed conflict, economic uncertainty, climate change and environmental degradation, nuclear and other WMD proliferation, terrorism, massive refugee flows, pandemic disease, cyber vulnerabilities and autonomous weapon systems. And, rather than coming together, it seems as if countries and societies are increasingly decoupling or pulling apart, cloistering around revived nationalisms or more virulent xenophobia (i.e., fear of outsiders).

These global tensions between cooperation and fragmentation are hardly unique to our era, and yet our era faces some unique challenges. This course is designed to help you better understand the historical structures, continuities, and changes that have produced and continue to shape contemporary world politics, and then to delve more deeply into some of the key issues, actors, and trends that will influence our world in the coming months and years. Along the way, you'll firm-up your global history and political geography as well as conceptual and analytical tools to help you make sense of this complexity, either as an end in itself or in preparation for more advanced courses in international relations and the social sciences.

COURSE OBJECTIVES & LEARNING OUTCOMESCourse Objectives:

- To introduce students to the historical foundations and forces that produced our contemporary world of states, including the major tensions that drive world politics (power versus justice, empire versus self-determination, human rights versus national sovereignty, free trade versus mercantilism, etc.)

- To cultivate comprehensive understanding about the major issues and trends driving world politics in the 20th and 21st Centuries, and in particular our current decade
- To develop analytical and critical skills geared towards the social scientific and humanistic study of world politics

Learning Outcomes: Students will develop the knowledge and/or skills to ...

- differentiate and identify the broad contours of global political geography and its historical evolution
- differentiate and identify the main actors within contemporary global politics (from states and international organizations to transnational corporations, NGOs, and criminal networks)
- identify, understand, distinguish, apply, and critique different key concepts, theoretical perspectives, and dominant narratives that attempt to explain and analyze various aspects of world politics
- develop critical reading, thinking, research, and analytical skills to apply towards the complexities of contemporary global politics and its major substantive issues and trends

TOPHAT QUIZZES, SURVEYS, & CLASS EXERCISES (20%)

TopHat is an online response application available for free for all University of Calgary students. Using a lap-top, tablet, or smart phone, students answer questions in real-time in class or as homework outside of class. Some questions generate participation points only (e.g., surveys), while other questions also generate points for correct answers. Some questions will be available between classes as homework, related to recently completed or upcoming assigned reading/topics. Other questions or surveys will be done during class as part of class exercises and discussions about global politics. If by the end of the term your TopHat average is 94% or greater, you will receive 20/20 weighted points. This takes into account technical glitches and the occasional missed question. Once TopHat questions are closed after a deadline or put into “review” mode, they cannot be reopened.

TWO MID-TERM EXAMS (25% plus 15%; total 40%)

Two closed book mid-term exams will be taken in class on Wednesday, July 12th (25%, 75 minutes) and Wednesday, July 26th (15%, 60 minutes). These will comprise a mix of map labelling, multiple choice, true-false, matching or identification questions, and may contain other written answer questions/exercises. All exams are cumulative, though weighted to the lectures and readings since the previous exam.

FINAL EXAMINATION (40%)

Final Exam	Yes
Length	2 hours
Format	Registrar scheduled between Aug 10-14
Type	Multiple-choice, T/F, matching, and short answer/written questions. Some written question options may be given in advance.
Aids	Closed book, cumulative

Note: To be eligible to pass the course, students need to write both mid-terms and take the final exam.

WRITING STATEMENT

Written assignments are often required in Political Science courses, and the quality of writing skills, including but not limited to such elements as grammar, punctuation, sentence structure, clarity, citation, and organization, will be taken into account in the determination of grades. Students are encouraged to make use of the services offered through Writing Support Services in the Student Success Centre by contacting them at <http://www.ucalgary.ca/ssc/writing-support>.

GRADING SCALE: The following grading scale will be used:

A+ (92-100)	B+ (77-79)	C+ (67-69)	D+ (55-59)
A (86-91)	B (73-76)	C (63-66)	D (50-54)
A- (80-85)	B- (70-72)	C- (60-62)	F (0-49)

INSTRUCTOR GUIDELINES

Poli 283 requires reading, research, and map study outside the classroom. Students are advised that they will be examined on all lectures as well as on all required reading from the textbook and any additional required reading that the instructor has assigned for the course. Because lectures do not repeat the required readings verbatim and because students will be examined on whatever is discussed in class, students are advised that regular attendance in class is highly recommended.

Students requiring assistance are encouraged to speak to the instructor during class or their office hours. Should you wish to meet outside of office hours, please telephone or email to make an appointment. It is to the student's advantage to keep such appointments.

Email is a common form of communication but it is not always the most effective way of answering student questions. If you cannot make office hours, please request a one-on-one meeting outside of these hours. Given the volume of emails received from various courses, always put POLI 283 in the subject line or your email will not be answered. If you do not receive a response within 24 hours, please resend. It is imperative that students regularly check their UCalgary email accounts and D2L for course related information and announcements.

Students are welcome to use laptops and other electronic note-taking devices in this course. Please be considerate of others and switch off all cell phones when you enter the classroom. Sending/receiving texts and browsing the Web is extremely disruptive to others and will not be tolerated. At times, students will be asked to close down their technology in class. Recording of lectures is permitted for accommodation purposes and should be discussed in the first week of class with the instructor. Both the student and the instructor must sign the appropriate form(s) to facilitate recording lectures. Any other use of recording constitutes Academic Misconduct and may result in suspension or expulsion.

IMPORTANT POLICIES AND INFORMATION

Absence From a Mid-term Examination

Students who are absent from a scheduled term test or quiz for legitimate reasons are responsible for contacting the instructor via email within 48 hours of the missed test to discuss alternative arrangements. A copy of this email may be requested as proof of the attempt to contact the instructor. Any student who fails to do so forfeits the right to a makeup test.

Deferred Term Work Form: Deferral of term work past the end of a term requires a form to be filled out by the student and submitted, along with any supporting documentation, to the instructor. The form is available at: https://live-ucalgary.ucalgary.ca/sites/default/files/teams/14/P22_deferral-of-term-work_lapseGrade.pdf

Once an extension date has been agreed between instructor and student, the instructor will email the form to the Faculty of Arts Program Information Centre (ascarts@ucalgary.ca) for approval by the Associate Dean.

Deferral of a Final Examination

Deferral of a final examination can be granted for reasons of illness, domestic affliction, and unforeseen circumstances, as well as to those with three (3) final exams scheduled within a 24-hour period. Deferred final exams will not be granted to those who sit the exam, who have made travel arrangements that conflict with their exam, or who have misread the examination timetable. The decision to allow a deferred final exam rests not with the instructor but with Enrolment Services. Instructors should, however, be notified if you will be absent during the examination. The Application for Deferred Final Exam, deadlines, requirements and submission instructions can be found on the Enrolment Services website at <https://www.ucalgary.ca/registrar/exams/deferred-exams>.

Reappraisal of Grades:

For Reappraisal of Graded Term Work, see Calendar I.2

<http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/i-2.html>

For Reappraisal of Final Grade, see Calendar I.3

<http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/i-3.html>

Academic Misconduct:

Academic Misconduct refers to student behavior that compromises proper assessment of students' academic activities and includes: cheating; fabrication; falsification; plagiarism; unauthorized assistance; failure to comply with an instructor's expectations regarding conduct required of students completing academic assessments in their courses; and failure to comply with exam regulations applied by the Registrar.

For information on the Student Academic Misconduct Policy, Procedure and Academic Integrity, please visit: <https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k-3.html>

Plagiarism And Other Forms Of Academic Misconduct

Academic misconduct in any form (e.g. cheating, plagiarism) is a serious academic offence that can lead to disciplinary probation, suspension or expulsion from the University. Students are expected to be familiar with the standards surrounding academic honesty; these can be found in the University of Calgary calendar at <http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k.html>. Such offences will be taken seriously and reported immediately, as required by Faculty of Arts policy.

Recording of Lectures:

Recording of lectures is prohibited, except for audio recordings authorized as an accommodation by SAS or an audio recording for individual private study and only with the written permission of the instructor. Any unauthorized electronic or mechanical recording of lectures, their transcription, copying, or distribution, constitutes academic misconduct. See <https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/e-6.html>.

Academic Accommodations:

Students seeking an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services. SAS will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. Students who require an accommodation in relation to their coursework based on a protected ground other than disability should communicate this need in writing to their instructor. The full policy on Student Accommodations is available at

<https://www.ucalgary.ca/legal-services/university-policies-procedures/student-accommodation-policy>

Research Ethics

Students are advised that any research with human subjects – including any interviewing (even with friends and family), opinion polling, or unobtrusive observation – must have the approval of the Conjoint Faculties Research Ethics Board. In completing course requirements, students must not undertake any human subject research without discussing their plans with the instructor, to determine if ethics approval is required.

Instructor Intellectual Property

Course materials created by instructors (including presentations and posted notes, labs, case studies, assignments and exams) remain the intellectual property of the instructor. These materials may NOT be reproduced, redistributed or copied without the explicit consent of the instructor. The posting of course materials to third party websites such as note-sharing sites without permission is prohibited. Sharing of extracts of these course materials with other students enrolled in the course at the same time may be allowed under fair dealing.

Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy (FOIP) Act:

Personal information is collected in accordance with FOIP. Assignments can only be returned to the student and will be accessible only to authorized faculty and staff. For more information, see <https://www.ucalgary.ca/legal-services/access-information-privacy>

Copyright Legislation:

See the University of Calgary policy on Acceptable Use of Material Protected by Copyright at <https://www.ucalgary.ca/legal-services/university-policies-procedures/acceptable-use-material-protected-copyright-policy> Students who use material protected by copyright in violation of this policy may be disciplined under the Non-Academic Misconduct Policy.

Course materials created by instructors (including presentations and posted notes, labs, case studies, assignments and exams) remain the intellectual property of the instructor.
