COURSE DESCRIPTION
This course is designed as an intensive introduction to the domestic and international politics of Africa’s diverse post-colonial states and political institutions, with a particular focus on Sub-Saharan Africa (given that courses on the politics of the Middle East include North Africa). Africa’s expansiveness and its complexities are often reduced to sweeping generalizations which stand in the way of deeper understanding and explanation of political processes, economic (under)development, and political contestation. The first takeaway from this introductory course is that Africa is not a country, it is a continent of over 50 diverse countries. Over 25% of United Nations member states are African. But why 55 (or so), and not one “United States of Africa” as promoted by, among others, Ghana’s first President Kwame Nkrumah, or 500 plus that might better reflect the diversity of the continent?

The so-called “marginalized continent” has suffered extensive extracontinental intervention for five hundred years, but this illustrates how central it has been to world history. Most of the continent has been politically independent as sovereign states for barely sixty or seventy years. Thus, pre-colonial, colonial, post-colonial, and international influences and interventions must all be considered in any explanation of the evolution or trajectory of the politics of African states, their governments, as well as the African regional state system. Awareness of African agency, even within the context of power asymmetries and structural impediments, is a central theme of this course. The paradox of the strong de jure African state (that is, international legal recognition of sovereign states and their borders) and often weak de facto African states (that is, governance and authority structures which do not adequately deliver public goods such as development or security) will be another core theme of the course, as this paradox is implicated in authoritarianism, inter- and intra-state conflict, and economic under-performance. How and why post-colonial African states evolved as they did remains contested scholarly terrain, a terrain we will traverse through multiple themes, perspectives, and theoretical approaches.

COURSE OBJECTIVES & LEARNING OUTCOMES
Course Objectives:

- To introduce students to the historical, geographical, theoretical, conceptual, and institutional foundations of contemporary post-colonial African politics and government
- To cultivate comprehensive knowledge about the complexities of contemporary African political economy in the context of globalization and impulses towards continental and regional integration

- To develop research, analytical, and critical thinking skills geared towards a reflective study of African politics

Learning Outcomes: Students will develop the knowledge and/or skills to...

- differentiate and identify Africa’s major geographic features, political units (i.e., states), and their basic colonial and post-colonial history
- differentiate and identify the regional organizations and international actors (empires, countries, organizations) that historically or currently influence African politics and political economy
- develop an appreciation for the human and societal complexities underpinning Africa’s post-colonial political evolution, from language and ethnicity to religion and gender
- identify and recognize contributions of significant African leaders (and intellectuals, movements, artists, etc.) as well as noteworthy Africanist scholars from outside the continent.
- develop appropriate research skills to find and assess primary information and secondary analysis relevant to African politics
- identify, understand, distinguish, apply, and critique different key concepts, theoretical perspectives, and dominant narratives that attempt to explain and analyze various aspects of African politics, economics, and conflict
- develop a considerable level of expertise about one country to enable cross-class comparisons around key themes and concepts through discussions, online participation, and written work

TOPHAT QUIZZES & SURVEYS (10%)

TopHat is an online response application available for free for all University of Calgary students. Using a lap-top, tablet, or smart phone, students answer questions in real-time in class or as homework outside of class. Some questions generate participation points only (e.g., surveys), while other questions also generate points for correct answers. Some questions will be available between classes as homework, related to recently completed or upcoming assigned reading/topics. Other questions or surveys will be done during class. If by the end of the term your TopHat average is 92% or greater, you will receive 10/10 weighted points. This takes into account technical glitches and the occasional missed question. Once TopHat questions are closed after a deadline or put into “review” mode, they cannot be reopened.

TWO MID-TERM EXAMS (20% each; total 40%)

Two (60 & 70 minute, respectively), closed book mid-term exams will be taken in class on Thursday, July 6th and Thursday, July 20th. These will comprise a mix of map labelling, multiple choice, true-false, matching or identification questions, and may contain other written answer questions/exercises.
COUNTRY CASE STUDY PAPER (20%)
In our second class, students will be assigned a random African country case study about which they will be expected to become the class expert. During the term, students will answer TopHat survey questions about their country and provide examples during class discussions. Following specific parameters provided in class and on D2L, papers will be due on Tuesday, Aug. 8th on D2L Dropbox (11:59pm). There will be a 10% (or 2 point) per each 24 hour late penalty, including weekends, as the paper is due on the last day of classes.

Rubric:
Research: 6 – Good mix of primary and secondary sources, properly cited
Execution: 4 – Covers style, spelling, grammar, punctuation, & attn to detail (proofread!)
Structure: 3 – Title page/map; great title; template followed Thinking: 7 – Have you illustrated deep knowledge of your country plus relevant concepts?

POLI 371(L01)

INSTRUCTOR GUIDELINES
Poli 371 is a heavy reading and research course. Students are advised that they will be examined on all lectures as well as on all required reading from the textbook and the additional required reading that the instructor has assigned for the course. Because lectures do not repeat the required readings verbatim and because students will be examined on whatever is discussed in class, students are advised that regular attendance in class is highly recommended.

Students requiring assistance are encouraged to speak to the instructor during class or their office hours. Should you wish to meet outside of office hours, please telephone or email to make an appointment. It is to the student’s advantage to keep such appointments.

Email is a common form of communication but it is not always the most effective way of answering student questions. If you cannot make office hours, please request a one on one meeting outside of these hours. Given the volume of emails received, always put POLI 371 in the subject line or your email will not be answered. If you do not receive a response within 24 hours, please resend. It is imperative that students regularly check their UCalgary email accounts and D2L for course related information and announcements.

Students are welcome to use laptops and other electronic note-taking devices in this course. Please be considerate of others and switch off all cell phones when you enter the classroom. Sending/receiving texts and browsing the Web is extremely disruptive to others and will not be tolerated. Recording of lectures is permitted for accommodation purposes. Both the student and the instructor must sign the appropriate form(s) to facilitate recording lectures. Any other use of recording constitutes Academic Misconduct and may result in suspension or expulsion.

IMPORTANT POLICIES AND INFORMATION

Absence From a Mid-term Examination
Students who are absent from a scheduled term test or quiz for legitimate reasons are responsible for contacting the instructor via email within 48 hours of the missed test to discuss alternative arrangements. A copy of this email may be requested as proof of the attempt to contact the instructor. Any student who fails to do so forfeits the right to a makeup test.

Deferred Term Work Form: Deferral of term work past the end of a term requires a form to be filled out by the student and submitted, along with any supporting documentation, to the instructor. The form is available at: https://live-ucalgary.ucalgary.ca/sites/default/files/teams/14/P22_deferral-of-term-work_lapseGrade.pdf

Once an extension date has been agreed between instructor and student, the instructor will email the form to the Faculty of Arts Program Information Centre (ascarts@ucalgary.ca) for approval by the Associate Dean.

Deferral of a Final Examination
Deferral of a final examination can be granted for reasons of illness, domestic affliction, and unforeseen circumstances, as well as to those with three (3) final exams scheduled within a 24-hour period. Deferred final exams will not be granted to those who sit the exam, who have made travel arrangements that conflict with their exam, or who have misread the examination timetable. The decision to allow a deferred final exam rests not with the instructor but with Enrolment Services. Instructors should, however, be notified if you will be absent during the examination. The Application for Deferred Final Exam, deadlines, requirements and submission instructions can be found on the Enrolment Services website at https://www.ucalgary.ca/registrar/exams/deferred-exams.

Reappraisal of Grades:
For Reappraisal of Graded Term Work, see Calendar I.2

For Reappraisal of Final Grade, see Calendar I.3
http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/i-3.html

Academic Misconduct:
Academic Misconduct refers to student behavior that compromises proper assessment of students’ academic activities and includes: cheating; fabrication; falsification; plagiarism; unauthorized assistance; failure to comply with an instructor’s expectations regarding conduct required of students completing academic assessments in their courses; and failure to comply with exam regulations applied by the Registrar.

For information on the Student Academic Misconduct Policy, Procedure and Academic Integrity, please visit: https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k-3.html

Plagiarism And Other Forms Of Academic Misconduct
Academic misconduct in any form (e.g. cheating, plagiarism) is a serious academic offence that can lead to disciplinary probation, suspension or expulsion from the University. Students are expected to be familiar with the standards surrounding academic honesty; these can be found in the University of Calgary calendar at http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k.html. Such offences will be taken seriously and reported immediately, as required by Faculty of Arts policy.

Recording of Lectures:
Recording of lectures is prohibited, except for audio recordings authorized as an accommodation by SAS or an audio recording for individual private study and only with the written permission of the instructor. Any unauthorized electronic or mechanical recording of lectures, their transcription, copying, or distribution, constitutes academic misconduct. See https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/e-6.html.

Academic Accommodations:
Students seeking an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services. SAS will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. Students who require an accommodation in relation to their coursework based on a protected ground other than disability should communicate this need in writing to their instructor. The full policy on Student Accommodations is available at https://www.ucalgary.ca/legal-services/university-policies-procedures/student-accommodation-policy

Research Ethics
Students are advised that any research with human subjects – including any interviewing (even with friends and family), opinion polling, or unobtrusive observation – must have the approval of the Conjoint Faculties Research Ethics Board. In completing course requirements, students must not undertake any human subject research without discussing their plans with the instructor, to determine if ethics approval is required.
