COURSE DESCRIPTION
This course examines public policies in comparative perspective, seeking to explain why policies differ so much from country to country. Using recent and ongoing global events, namely the COVID-19 pandemic, this course explores how the tools of comparative public policy help make sense of cross-national differences in terms of public policies and their social and political consequences.

Through a close examination of political institutions and policy histories in six countries (Canada, Germany, Sweden, the United States, and the United Kingdom), we examine how each country addressed the many social and economic crises unleashed by the pandemic, focusing particularly on how different sets of policy legacies, political institutions, and ideas led countries to pursue different policy approaches to the pandemic. The policies examined in the course include health care, income support, childcare, unemployment, and long-term care.

COURSE OBJECTIVES & LEARNING OUTCOMES
Throughout the course, students will deepen their understanding of how and why certain issues become public “problems” to be addressed by governments, and how policy responses are formulated and implemented in different institutional contexts and in societies with different political cultures and historical legacies. Because the course adopts a comparative approach, students will learn more about politics, policy, and political systems outside of Canada, while also deepening their understanding of how and why public policies in Canada differ from those in other wealthy democracies.
REQUIRED TEXTBOOK(S)
There is no textbook for the course. Required materials (book chapters, articles, media, podcasts, and videos) will be available electronically either through the Taylor Family Digital Library or in other open access venues or posted to D2L.

COURSE COMPONENT WEIGHTS AND DUE DATES
Although this is primarily a lecture course, student participation is encouraged.

Students will complete 3 short written assignments (ranging from 500 to 12000 words). There will be a take-home final exam (see details on p. 4).

Following Monday’s in-person class each week, students will submit written questions related to the week’s topic. The questions must be submitted by the end of the week (Fridays). The questions will not be graded, but students who submit questions for at least ten of the weeks will receive 10 marks. Students who do not submit for at least ten weeks will receive 0. The questions will be answered by the instructor either during the in-person class on the following Monday or in the recorded videos posted to D2L.

The weighting of the coursework is as follows:

SUBMITTING YOUR WORK:
Assignments must be submitted electronically to the dropbox on D2L in Word format (do not submit a PDF). Assignments should have a file name as follows: “FirstName LastName Assignment #” (for example, Rachel Wong Assignment 3). It is the student’s responsibility to keep a copy of each submitted assignment and to ensure that the proper version is submitted.

Late penalties: Assignments must be submitted by 11:59pm on their due date (except for the weekly questions/comments that must be submitted by 6pm on Fridays). Instructors recognize that most students are taking several courses and therefore have a heavy workload of reading, writing, and studying. Heavy workloads are best managed by being well organized, keeping up with required readings, and getting an early start on assignments.
In order to maintain fairness, students requesting extensions without a legitimate reason (for example, health issue or family emergency) will have late penalties of 2% per day deducted from the grade.

NOTE: If you miss a required course component, please get in touch with the instructor as soon as possible.

INSTRUCTOR GUIDELINES
Students requiring assistance are encouraged to speak to the instructor during their office hours. Should you wish to meet outside of office hours, please email to make an appointment. It is to the student’s advantage to keep such appointments. All meetings will be held virtually.

Email is a common form of communication, but it is not always the most effective way of answering student questions. If you cannot make office hours, please request a one-on-one meeting outside of these hours, to be held virtually.

Students are welcome to use laptops and other electronic note-taking devices in this course, but please considerate of others and switch off all cell phones when you enter the classroom. Sending/receiving texts and browsing the internet is extremely disruptive to others and will not be tolerated.

IMPORTANT POLICIES AND INFORMATION

Supporting Documentation and the Use of a Statutory Declaration

As stated in the University Calendar:

Students may be asked to provide supporting documentation for an exemption/special request. This may include, but is not limited to, a prolonged absence from a course where participation is required, a missed course assessment, a deferred examination, or an appeal. Students are encouraged to submit documentation that will support their situation. Supporting documentation may be dependent on the reason noted in their personal statement/explanation provided to explain their situation. This could be medical certificate/documentation, references, police reports, invitation letter, third party letter of support or a statutory declaration etc. The decision to provide supporting documentation that best suits the situation is at the discretion of the student. Students cannot be required to provide specific supporting documentation, such as a medical note.

Students can make a Statutory Declaration as their supporting documentation (available at ucalgary.ca/registrar). This requires students to make a declaration in the presence of a Commissioner for Oaths. It demonstrates the importance of honest and accurate information provided and is a legally binding declaration. Several registered Commissioners for Oaths are available to students at no charge, on campus. For a list of locations to access a Commissioner for Oaths, visit ucalgary.ca/registrar.

Falsification of any supporting documentation will be taken very seriously and may result in disciplinary action through the Academic Discipline regulations or the Student Non-Academic Misconduct policy.

This statement is accessible at: https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/m-1.html

Absence From a Mid-term Examination

Students who are absent from a scheduled term test or quiz for legitimate reasons are responsible for contacting the instructor via email within 48 hours of the missed test to discuss alternative arrangements. A copy of this email may be requested as proof of the attempt to contact the instructor. Any student who fails to do so forfeits the right to a makeup test.

Deferral of a Final Examination

Deferral of a final examination can be granted for reasons of illness, domestic affliction, and unforeseen circumstances, as well as to those with three (3) final exams scheduled within a 24-hour period. Deferred final exams will not be granted to those who sit the exam, who have made travel arrangements that conflict with their exam, or who have misread the examination timetable. The decision to allow a deferred final exam rests not with the instructor but with Enrolment Services. Instructors should, however, be notified if you will be absent during the examination. The Application for Deferred Final Exam, deadlines, requirements and submission instructions can be found on the Enrolment Services website at https://www.ucalgary.ca/registrar/exams/deferred-exams.

Reappraisals

The University Calendar states that for reappraisals of graded term work:

“A student who feels that a piece of graded term work (term paper, essay, test, etc.) has been unfairly graded, may have the work reappraised as follows. The student shall discuss the work with the instructor within ten business days of being notified about the mark or of the item's return to the class. If not satisfied, the student shall take the matter to the head of the department offering the course within 2 business days of receiving the decision from the instructor, who will arrange for a reappraisal of the work within the next ten business days. The reappraisal will only be considered if the student provides a detailed rationale that outlines where and for what reason an error is suspected.” See https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/i-2.html

The University Calendar states that for reappraisal of academic assessments (final grades):

“A student may request a reappraisal of a final grade. The only element that will be considered is the final assessment(s) that makes up the final mark (e.g., final examination, final project, and final paper). The exception is when a grade for a piece of graded term work is made available to students after the last day of classes for the term in which the course is scheduled: that grade may also be considered in a reappraisal of the final grade.”

“A student seeking a reappraisal of a final grade should first attempt to review the final assessment with the department or faculty offering the course. After which the student shall obtain a Reappraisal of Final Grade form from ucalgary.ca/registrar (under Student Forms). The student must indicate exactly what error was made in marking the final assessment and/or in computing the final grade. The reappraisal will only be considered if the student provides a detailed rationale that outlines where and for what reason an error is suspected.”

University Regulations
Students are responsible for familiarizing themselves with the University policies found in the Academic Regulations sections of the Calendar at www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/academic-regs.html.

Student Accommodations
Students seeking an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services; SAS will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. For additional information on support services and accommodations for students with disabilities, visit www.ucalgary.ca/access/.

Students who require an accommodation in relation to their coursework based on a protected ground other than disability should communicate this need in writing to their Instructor.

The full policy on Student Accommodations is available at http://www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/student-accommodation-policy.pdf.

Plagiarism And Other Forms Of Academic Misconduct
Academic misconduct in any form (e.g. cheating, plagiarism) is a serious academic offence that can lead to disciplinary probation, suspension or expulsion from the University. Students are expected to be familiar with the standards surrounding academic honesty; these can be found in the University of Calgary calendar at http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k.html. Such offences will be taken seriously and reported immediately, as required by Faculty of Arts policy.

Copyright Legislation
As stated in the University of Calgary Calendar, Academic Regulations, “students are required to read the University of Calgary policy on Acceptable Use of Material Protected by Copyright and requirements of the copyright act to ensure they are aware of the consequences of unauthorised sharing of course materials (including instructor notes, electronic versions of textbooks etc.). Students who use material protected by copyright in violation of this policy may be disciplined under the Non-Academic Misconduct Policy.”

Instructor Intellectual Property
Course materials created by instructors (including presentations and posted notes, labs, case studies, assignments and exams) remain the intellectual property of the instructor. These materials may NOT be reproduced, redistributed or copied without the explicit consent of the instructor. The posting of course materials to third party websites such as note-sharing sites without permission is prohibited. Sharing of extracts of these course materials with other students enrolled in the course at the same time may be allowed under fair dealing.

Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy (FOIP)
FOIP legislation requires that instructors maintain the confidentiality of student information. In practice, this means that student assignment and tests cannot be left for collection in any public place without the consent of the student. It also means that grades cannot be distributed via email. Final exams are kept by instructors but can be viewed by contacting them or the main office in the Department of Political Science. Any uncollected assignments and tests meant to be returned will be destroyed after six months from the end of term; final examinations are destroyed after one year.

Evacuation Assembly Points
In the event of an emergency evacuation from class, students are required to gather in designated assembly points. Please check the list found at www.ucalgary.ca/emergencyplan/assemblypoints and note the assembly point nearest to your classroom.
