COURSE DESCRIPTION

The purpose of this lecture-based senior course is to provide students with a chronological and critical introduction to the political economy of development in the People's Republic of China (PRC) from the Liberation to the present. A series of prefatory lectures will provide the theoretical and historical background needed to evaluate the variegated process of socialist state formation in the PRC since 1949. Thereafter, lectures will analyze comparatively the development strategies of the Mao Zedong epoch and the modernization projects of reform era leaderships from Deng Xiaoping to Xi Jinping, and assess the achievability of socialist construction via the mechanisms of the "socialist market" and China's deepening integration with the capitalist world order.

COURSE OBJECTIVES AND LEARNING OUTCOMES

This course is designed to impart an advanced area-specific facility in the specialized vocabulary, core concepts, and theoretical approaches needed to explain the process of socialist modernization in the PRC. In addition, it is structured to expose students to the scholarly debates that constitute the contemporary study of socialist and post-socialist transitions, and to provide them with a knowledge base sufficient to initiate or augment an area specialization in Chinese and/or Asia Pacific studies at the undergraduate level.

INSTRUCTOR GUIDELINES

Lectures and Required Reading: Students are advised that they will be examined on all lectures as well as on all required reading from the textbook that the instructor has assigned for the course (please see Required Textbook above).

Because lectures do not repeat the required readings verbatim and because students will be examined on whatever is said in lectures by the the instructor, students are forewarned that regular attendance in class is highly recommended. Also, students are forewarned that all of the required reading is examinable whether it has been discussed in lectures or not.

Students are strongly urged to familiarize themselves with the policies governing acceptable use of lectures, postings to D2L, and the assigned textbook by referring to the sections on Copyright Legislation, Instructor Intellectual Property, and Plagiarism and Other Forms of Academic Misconduct below.

D2L and Technology Requirements: Because students will need to use the D2L course site throughout the term, they will require reliable access to technology as follows:

- A computer with a supported operating system, as well as the latest security, and malware updates;
- A current and updated web browser;
- Webcam/Camera (built-in or external);
- Microphone and speaker (built-in or external), or headset with microphone;
- Current antivirus and/or firewall software enabled;
- Stable internet connection

For further information on Technology Requirements, please go to <https://elearn.ucalgary.ca/technology-requirements-for-students/>. See also the section on Required Access to Technology below.

For information on the use of D2L, please go to <https://elearn.ucalgary.ca/category/d2l/student-resources/>. To access D2L, please go to <https://d2l.ucalgary.ca>.

Recording of Lectures: Recording of lectures is permitted for accommodation purposes or for individual private study at the discretion of the instructor. Any other use of recording constitutes Academic Misconduct and may result in suspension or expulsion. Both the student and the instructor must sign the appropriate form(s) to facilitate recording lectures.

Instructor Email and Communication Policy: Students requiring assistance are encouraged to speak to the instructor during class or by appointment in-person, by telephone, or via Zoom. Though email is commonly used by students to communicate with their instructor, it does limit the effectiveness of the communications and may not be the best way for instructors to answer student questions, especially those requiring an explanation of concepts covered in this course or some personal concerns. Therefore, the instructor may ask students to speak with him by appointment in-person, by telephone, or via Zoom to answer questions concerning the course curriculum, Take Home Tests #1 and #2, and the Take Home Cumulative Final Examination.

IMPORTANT POLICIES AND INFORMATION

Supporting Documentation and the Use of a Statutory Declaration

As stated in the University Calendar:

Students may be asked to provide supporting documentation for an exemption/special request. This may include, but is not limited to, a prolonged absence from a course where participation is required, a missed course assessment, a deferred examination, or an appeal. Students are encouraged to submit documentation that will support their situation. Supporting documentation may be dependent on the reason noted in their personal statement/explanation provided to explain their situation. This could be medical certificate/documentation, references, police reports, invitation letter, third party letter of support or a statutory declaration etc. The decision to provide supporting documentation that best suits the situation is at the discretion of the student. Students cannot be required to provide specific supporting documentation, such as a medical note.

Students can make a Statutory Declaration as their supporting documentation (available at ucalgary.ca/registrar). This requires students to make a declaration in the presence of a Commissioner for Oaths. It demonstrates the importance of honest and accurate information provided and is a legally binding declaration. Several registered Commissioners for Oaths are available to students at no charge, on campus. For a list of locations to access a Commissioners for Oaths, visit ucalgary.ca/registrar.

Falsification of any supporting documentation will be taken very seriously and may result in disciplinary action through the Academic Discipline regulations or the Student Non-Academic Misconduct policy.

This statement is accessible at: <https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/m-1.html>

Absence From a Mid-term Examination

Students who are absent from a scheduled term test or quiz for legitimate reasons are responsible for contacting the instructor via email within 48 hours of the missed test to discuss alternative arrangements. A copy of this email may be requested as proof of the attempt to contact the instructor. Any student who fails to do so forfeits the right to a makeup test.

Deferred Term Work Form: Deferral of term work past the end of a term requires a form to be filled out by the student and submitted, along with any supporting documentation, to the instructor. The form is available at:

<https://live-ucalgary.ucalgary.ca/sites/default/files/teams/14/deferral-of-term-work-2020.pdf>

Once an extension date has been agreed between instructor and student, the instructor will email the form to the Faculty of Arts Program Information Centre (ascarts@ucalgary.ca) for approval by the Associate Dean.

Deferral of a Final Examination

Deferral of a final examination can be granted for reasons of illness, domestic affliction, and unforeseen circumstances, as well as to those with three (3) final exams scheduled within a 24-hour period. Deferred final exams will not be granted to those who sit the exam, who have made travel arrangements that conflict with their exam, or who have misread the examination timetable. The decision to allow a deferred final exam rests not with the instructor but with Enrolment Services. Instructors should, however, be notified if you will be absent during the examination. The Application for Deferred Final Exam, deadlines, requirements and submission instructions can be found on the Enrolment Services website at <https://www.ucalgary.ca/registrar/exams/deferred-exams>.
