COURSE DESCRIPTION
The rise of powerful Indigenous rights movements in countries of the Global South during the third wave of democratization caught most analysts and officials by surprise. Indigenous demands for identity, territory, and autonomy serve to challenge the national unity projects in the post-colonial societies of Africa, Asia, and Latin America. In light of this dynamic, this course addresses the following questions: How is indigeneity articulated and expressed in different contexts? How are governments in the Global South responding to Indigenous rights movements? The seminar begins with an overview of the available conceptual tools and theoretical approaches to understanding the politicization of Indigenous identity in the Global South. Special attention will be paid to debates over Indigenous resistance and resurgence; Indigenous nationhood; and Indigenous women’s movements. The course then explores how these dynamics play out within the regional contexts of Africa, Asia and Latin America. The final section of the course addresses contemporary issues in global Indigenous politics, including the use and implementation of the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples (UNDRIP) and the controversies surrounding legal pluralism and the politics of decolonization.

COURSE OBJECTIVES & LEARNING OUTCOMES
The objective of the course is to provide students with the tools to critically assess competing explanations for the rise of Indigenous peoples as key political actors in countries of the Global South. As a learning outcome, students will develop the capacity to analyze theoretical debates and substantive issues in the field of global Indigenous politics and apply their insights to a case of Indigenous movement emergence relevant to the course in a professional, seminar paper.

REQUIRED TEXTBOOKS
All textbooks and journal articles are available electronically through the University of Calgary library homepage: http://library.ucalgary.ca/.

REQUIRED TECHNOLOGY
Students will require a computer device with Internet connection to access the course material and submit assignments as well as a camera and microphone to participate in Zoom sessions.

FORMAT AND ASSIGNMENTS
The course will be taught in a mixed asynchronous and synchronous on-line format. Teaching methods will include Power Point lecture slides, on-line documentaries and virtual class discussions. Students are expected to actively participate in Zoom discussions. Weekly lecture slides will be posted to our course page at the beginning of the week. Students are expected to review the slides and complete the assigned readings by the start of our weekly Zoom discussion session on Fridays from 10:30 a.m.-11:45 a.m. (the weekly Zoom meeting link will be provided on our course page). Assignments are due to our course Dropbox at the start of class, unless otherwise indicated. Please note, there is no Registrar scheduled final exam in this course.

RESEARCH PROPOSAL
The purpose of this assignment is to provide you with instructor feedback during the preparation of your research essay. The proposal is also intended to assist you in developing your essay topic, formulating your research question, locating sources, and organizing your ideas in a timely fashion. Essay proposals should be between 4-5 double-spaced pages plus the bibliography. Proposals should: a) identify your research topic and question; b) outline what other scholars have said or found on the topic; c) outline your basic argument and approach; and d) provide an overview of your research design and methods. You should attach a proposed bibliography to your proposal. Proposals that fail to cite sources throughout the text will not be accepted. You must draw on material from this course in your proposal and final essay. Both the essay proposal and the essay assignment will be discussed in detail in lecture slides and Zoom sessions.

RESEARCH ESSAY
The research essay assignment is an opportunity to develop a professional seminar paper. Students are expected to develop an in-depth case study of an Indigenous rights struggle in the Global South using the conceptual and theoretical tools of the course. The essay should be approximately 12-15 double-spaced pages plus the bibliography. Ensure that you state your research question, outline the theoretical and/or conceptual approach of the paper, provide an overview of the literature on your topic, support your assertions with evidence, and conclude by summarizing your findings and outlining any questions or avenues for future research. You must cite sources either in footnotes, endnotes or embedded in the text and provide a bibliography. Please note that you must incorporate at least two sources from the course syllabus in your essay. And remember, if you use another author’s words, you must enclose them in quotes and cite the source. If you use another author’s ideas, you must cite the source. Essays that do not adhere to standard citation practice will NOT be accepted. The papers will be graded on: (a) the depth and comprehensiveness of the research effort; (b) the strength of the analysis and theoretical framework; and (c) organization, clarity and writing style.

READING RESPONSE PAPERS
Students are expected to submit a weekly reading response for each of our regularly scheduled sessions. The objective of this assignment is to prepare you to participate in our Zoom discussions. Reading responses should be posted by the start of class (9:00 a.m.) on Friday to our discussion forum titled, “Weekly Reading Responses.” You can post a response by selecting the “start a new thread” function. You may attach your response or type it directly into the text box. Your response should be approximately 1-2 pages double-spaced (250-500 words). Rather than summarize the readings, you should engage with the themes and debates that run through all of the readings for that week. For example, you may want to highlight how the readings advance our understanding of global Indigenous politics, discuss how their findings and approaches compare to other readings in the course, and indicate any questions they raised for you. Be prepared to discuss your reading response during our weekly Zoom session.

PARTICIPATION (Zoom)
As a learning experience, the course will depend heavily upon the quality of student participation. Your participation grade will depend on your active participation in our weekly Zoom sessions. The Zoom sessions will address the questions, issues and debates from the lectures slides, documentaries, readings and discussion forum postings.

WRITING STATEMENT
Written assignments are often required in Political Science courses, and the quality of writing skills, including but not limited to such elements as grammar, punctuation, sentence structure, clarity, citation, and organization, will be taken into account in the determination of grades. Students are encouraged to make use of the services offered through Writing Support Services in the Student Success Centre by contacting them at http://www.ucalgary.ca/ssc/writing-support.

LATE PENALTIES
Please make every effort to submit assignments on-time. Assignments are due to Dropbox on D2L, unless otherwise indicated. It is your responsibility to keep a copy of all assignments in case of loss by any cause. A penalty of 2% per working day will be applied to all late assignments up until a maximum of ten late days, after which late papers will not be accepted. Weekends count as one working day. If life circumstances or illness intervene, please contact the course instructor as soon as possible. Please refer also to the policies on deferring term work on this outline and in D2L. However, keep in mind that in order to pass this course, you must complete all assignments, and plan accordingly.

INSTRUCTOR GUIDELINES
Students requiring assistance are encouraged to speak to the instructor during class or their office hours. Should you wish to meet outside of office hours, please telephone or email to make an appointment. It is to the student’s advantage to keep such appointments. All meetings will be held virtually.

Email is a common form of communication but it is not always the most effective way of answering student questions. If you cannot make office hours, please request a one on one meeting outside of these hours, to be held virtually.

IMPORTANT POLICIES AND INFORMATION

Supporting Documentation and the Use of a Statutory Declaration

As stated in the University Calendar:

Students may be asked to provide supporting documentation for an exemption/special request. This may include, but is not limited to, a prolonged absence from a course where participation is required, a missed course assessment, a deferred examination, or an appeal. Students are encouraged to submit documentation that will support their situation. Supporting documentation may be dependent on the reason noted in their personal statement/explanation provided to explain their situation. This could be medical certificate/documentation, references, police reports, invitation letter, third party letter of support or a statutory declaration etc. The decision to provide supporting documentation that best suits the situation is at the discretion of the student. Students cannot be required to provide specific supporting documentation, such as a medical note.

Students can make a Statutory Declaration as their supporting documentation (available at ucalgary.ca/registrat). This requires students to make a declaration in the presence of a Commissioner for Oaths. It demonstrates the importance of honest and accurate information provided and is a legally binding declaration. Several registered Commissioners for Oaths are available to students at no charge, on campus. For a list of locations to access a Commissioners for Oaths, visit ucalgary.ca/registrat).

Falsification of any supporting documentation will be taken very seriously and may result in disciplinary action through the Academic Discipline regulations or the Student Non-Academic Misconduct policy.

This statement is accessible at: https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/m-1.html
Absence From a Mid-term Examination
Students who are absent from a scheduled term test or quiz for legitimate reasons are responsible for contacting the instructor via email within 48 hours of the missed test to discuss alternative arrangements. A copy of this email may be requested as proof of the attempt to contact the instructor. Any student who fails to do so forfeits the right to a makeup test.

Deferral of a Final Examination
Deferral of a final examination can be granted for reasons of illness, domestic affliction, and unforeseen circumstances, as well as to those with three (3) final exams scheduled within a 24-hour period. Deferred final exams will not be granted to those who sit the exam, who have made travel arrangements that conflict with their exam, or who have misread the examination timetable. The decision to allow a deferred final exam rests not with the instructor but with Enrolment Services. Instructors should, however, be notified if you will be absent during the examination. The Application for Deferred Final Exam, deadlines, requirements and submission instructions can be found on the Enrolment Services website at https://www.ucalgary.ca/registrar/exams/deferred-exams.

Appeals
If a student has a concern about the course or a grade they have been assigned, they must first discuss their concerns with the instructor. If this does not resolve the matter, the student then proceed with an academic appeal. The first step in an academic appeal is to set up a meeting with the Department Head. Appeals must be requested within 15 days of receipt of the graded assignment.

University Regulations
Students are responsible for familiarizing themselves with the University policies found in the Academic Regulations sections of the Calendar at www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/academic-regs.html.

Student Accommodations
Students seeking an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services; SAS will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. For additional information on support services and accommodations for students with disabilities, visit www.ucalgary.ca/access/.

Students who require an accommodation in relation to their coursework based on a protected ground other than disability should communicate this need in writing to their Instructor.

Plagiarism and Other Forms of Academic Misconduct
Academic misconduct in any form (e.g. cheating, plagiarism) is a serious academic offence that can lead to disciplinary probation, suspension or expulsion from the University. Students are expected to be familiar with the standards surrounding academic honesty; these can be found in the University of Calgary calendar at http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k.html. Such offences will be taken seriously and reported immediately, as required by Faculty of Arts policy.

Required Access to Technology
Please see the University’s resource page at https://ucalgary.service-now.com/it?id=kb_article&sys_id=86e7438013753ac06f3afbb2e144b031

Copyright Legislation
As stated in the University of Calgary Calendar, Academic Regulations, “students are required to read the University of Calgary policy on Acceptable Use of Material Protected by Copyright and requirements of the copyright act to ensure they are aware of the consequences of unauthorised sharing of course materials (including instructor notes, electronic versions of textbooks etc.). Students who use material protected by copyright in violation of this policy may be disciplined under the Non-Academic Misconduct Policy.”

Instructor Intellectual Property
Course materials created by instructors (including presentations and posted notes, labs, case studies, assignments and exams) remain the intellectual property of the instructor. These materials may NOT be reproduced, redistributed or copied without the explicit consent of the instructor. The posting of course materials to third party websites such as note-sharing sites without permission is prohibited. Sharing of extracts of these course materials with other students enrolled in the course at the same time may be allowed under fair dealing.

Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy (FOIP)
FOIP legislation requires that instructors maintain the confidentiality of student information. In practice, this means that student assignment and tests cannot be left for collection in any public place without the consent of the student. It also means that grades cannot be distributed via email. Final exams are kept by instructors but can be viewed by contacting them or the main office in the Department of Political Science. Any uncollected assignments and tests meant to be returned will be destroyed after six months from the end of term; final examinations are destroyed after one year.
