COURSE DESCRIPTION

The Canadian Arctic is only now developing as an international region. Historically, the only people who could survive in its harsh climate year round were the Inuit and other northern indigenous peoples. It is only in the last century that technology advanced far enough to allow others to enter the Arctic. However, in the last 15 years the entire Arctic region has begun to change in ways unimaginable just a few years ago. This region is in a state of transformation of unprecedented proportions. Changes that are occurring at both the local and the international level are altering the very fabric of all northern societies, including those in Canada.

The three main factors transforming the Canadian Arctic are: 1) the impacts of climate change in the Arctic including dramatically changing ice conditions on the northern seas; 2) growing recognition of the economic potential of the Arctic region; and 3) evolving international relations in the region.

Perhaps the most challenging element to understanding this region is the recognition that it could either develop into another region of fierce international competition similar to the East China Sea, or it could become a model of international cooperation. The region, and Canada's role in it, is literally at a crossroads. Thus the class has a rare opportunity to see how it will develop at its most critical time period. Will it be possible to develop a set of agreements that will allow all to share fairly in the development of the region in a manner that will be sustainable and respect those who have lived there for generations? Or will the main state actors refuse to cooperate and instead chose to pursue unilateral actions that will inevitably increase levels of conflict in the region. Most importantly, however, what will Canada's role be in this developing new international region?

COURSE OBJECTIVES

The objective of this course is to provide students with an understanding of the nature of international relations in the Arctic region.

- 1) How is the Circumpolar North transforming?
- 2) What is Canada's role in the Circumpolar North?
- 3) What are the main issues that Canada faces in the Circumpolar North?

GRADE DISTRIBUTION

Assignment	Value	Due Date
Paper Proposal	20%	October 22
Critical Review Essay	10%	November 19
Research Paper	40%	December 3
Simulation	10%	Nov 26, Dec 3
Class Participation	20%	Term
TOTAL	100%

Paper Proposal

A paper proposal must be submitted by October 22 in class. The proposal (3-5 pages) must include a clear identification of the question to be addressed in the research paper, the methodology to be utilized, and a preliminary list of sources.

Critical Review Essay Students will select 5 books on Arctic security and international relations and provide a critical review essay of 10 or more pages to be submitted November 19 in class. This essay will provide critically assessment of the main themes and arguments of these books.

Research Paper

Students will be required to write one major research essay on a subject of their own choosing (suggestions will be provided) and is due at the beginning of class on December 3. This paper (25 or more pages) is to provide an analytical study of an aspect of the circumpolar north as a developing international region.

Simulation

A simulation exercise will be held at the end of the term. This exercise will be designed to allow students to "make" their own "Arctic" policy in regards to a specific international issue. Each student will be assigned as a decision-maker in one of the Arctic states or as a member of a northern Aboriginal Peoples organization and then must resolve an international problem. They are then required to represent that role using the knowledge acquired during the term. Students will be evaluated on their level of preparedness and participation in this exercise.

Class Participation

Students are required to attend all classes and participate in all class discussions. The reading assignments cited in the reading list are to be completed for each class, and it is expected that student will follow the coverage of news stories that are related to the various topic areas.

Writing Statement

Written assignments are often required in Political Science courses, including this one, and the quality of writing skills, including but not limited to such elements as grammar, punctuation, sentence structure, clarity, citation, and organization, will be taken into account in the determination of grades. Students are encouraged to make use of the services offered through Writing Support Services in the Student Success Centre (3rd floor of the Taylor Family Digital Library) or at <http://www.ucalgary.ca/ssc/writing-support>.

GRADE SCALE

A+ = 90-100	B+ = 75-78	C+ = 65-68	D+ = 55-58
A = 80-89	B = 70-74	C = 60-64	D = 50-54
A- = 79	B- = 69	C- = 59	F = 49-0

CLASS PREPARATION & DESIRE2LEARN (d2l)

Lectures focus on the material presented in the textbook and general discussion relating to the topic(s) outlined in the lecture schedule. Students are expected to read the assigned text chapters and readings before class, and be prepared for class discussion. Important information and additional readings are posted on Desire2Learn (d2l). Students should regularly check the Announcements section of Desire2Learn (d2l) for ongoing notices. It is the responsibility of the student to understand all concepts presented in the textbook and lectures. If you need clarification, please take the initiative to ask the instructor during class.

CONTACTING YOUR INSTRUCTOR

Students requiring assistance are encouraged to speak to their instructor during class or during their office hours. Should you wish to meet with the instructor outside of office hours, please telephone or email the instructor to make an appointment. It is to the student's advantage to keep such appointments.

PROPER USE OF EMAIL

Email is commonly used by students to communicate with their instructor. However, it does limit the effectiveness of the communications and may not be the best way for instructors to answer student questions, especially those requiring an explanation of concepts covered in this course or some personal concerns. Therefore the instructor may request a telephone call or personal meeting. Your instructor will inform you as to his/her expectations about emails.

REQUIRED TEXTBOOK AND/OR MATERIALS

Canada and the Changing Arctic: Sovereignty, Security and Stewardship Franklyn Griffiths, Rob Huebert and Whitney Lackenbauer, (Waterloo ON: Wilfrid Laurier Press, 2011).

Library Search Engines

One of the most important electronic aids to research offered by the library can be found on their Research Databases. This page lists numerous databases that include several that focus on international relations and strategic studies.

IMPORTANT POLICIES AND INFORMATION*Absence From a Mid-term Examination:

Students who are absent from a scheduled term test or quiz for legitimate reasons (e.g. illness with the appropriate documentation) are responsible for contacting the instructor via email within 48 hours of the missed test to discuss alternative arrangements. A copy of this email may be requested as proof of the attempt to contact the instructor. Any student who fails to do so forfeits the right to a makeup test.

Deferral of a Final Examination:

Deferral of a final examination can be granted for reasons of illness, domestic affliction, and unforeseen circumstances, as well as to those with three (3) final exams scheduled within a 24-hour period. Deferred final exams will not be granted to those who sit the exam, who have made travel arrangements that conflict with their exam, or who have misread the examination timetable. The decision to allow a deferred final exam rests not with the instructor but with Enrolment

Services. Instructors should, however, be notified if you will be absent during the examination. The Application for Deferred Final Exam, deadlines, requirements and submission instructions can be found on the Enrolment Services website at <https://www.ucalgary.ca/registrar/exams/deferred-exams>.

Appeals:

If a student has a concern about the course or a grade they have been assigned, they must first discuss their concerns with the instructor. If this does not resolve the matter, the student then proceed with an academic appeal. The first step in an academic appeal is to set up a meeting with the Department Head. Appeals must be requested within 15 days of receipt of the graded assignment.

University Regulations:

Students are responsible for familiarizing themselves with the University policies found in the Academic Regulations sections of the Calendar at www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/academic-regs.html.

Student Accommodations:

Students seeking an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services; SAS will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. For additional information on support services and accommodations for students with disabilities, visit www.ucalgary.ca/access/.

Students who require an accommodation in relation to their coursework based on a protected ground other than disability should communicate this need in writing to their Instructor.

The full policy on Student Accommodations is available at <http://www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/student-accommodation-policy.pdf>.

Plagiarism And Other Forms Of Academic Misconduct:

Academic misconduct in any form (e.g. cheating, plagiarism) is a serious academic offence that can lead to disciplinary probation, suspension or expulsion from the University. Students are expected to be familiar with the standards surrounding academic honesty; these can be found in the University of Calgary calendar at <http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k-5.html>. Such offences will be taken seriously and reported immediately, as required by Faculty of Arts policy.

Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy (FOIP):

FOIP legislation requires that instructors maintain the confidentiality of student information. In practice, this means that student assignment and tests cannot be left for collection in any public place without the consent of the student. It also means that grades cannot be distributed via email. Final exams are kept by instructors but can be viewed by contacting them or the main office in the Department of Political Science. Any uncollected assignments and tests meant to be returned will be destroyed after six months from the end of term; final examinations are destroyed after one year.

Evacuation Assembly Points:

In the event of an emergency evacuation from class, students are required to gather in designated assembly points. Please check the list found at www.ucalgary.ca/emergencyplan/assemblypoints and note the assembly point nearest to your classroom.
