

2015-2016

POLITICAL SCIENCE AWARDS

NOMINEES AND WINNERS

BEST 500-LEVEL PAPER

- Connor Molineaux:
“Normativity and Empiricism: Defining the State and the Role”
“Federal Provincial Relations and Conservatism in the Canadian West”
- Erica Kunimoto: “Sexual Differentiation, Freedom and the Family”
- Steven Nuss: “The Ineffectiveness of Nonproliferation Today: A Better, Causal Path to Nuclear Security”
- Soline Meslier: “EUROPOL as the Counterterrorism Agency of the European Union”
- Maria Arellano: “Policy Memorandum”
- Chelsea Boutilier: “Take-Home Question 2”

BEST GRADUATE PAPER

- Nidhi Panwar: “Postdevelopment and Hindu Nationalism”
- Josh McEvoy: “Nonregime Analysis: A Framework for Research”
- Michael Walz: “The Genocide in Rwanda: Why the United States did not Intervene”
- Jordan Hollman: “A Review of CCME Policy for Pharmaceuticals in Municipal Wastewater”
- Christian Halt: “A Deadly Binary? An Analysis of American and Chinese Relations in the Context of Cyberspace”

BEST HONOURS THESIS:

- Lucas Jerusalimiec: “Good Men and Good Citizens: Reconciling Prudence and Lawfulness”
- David McDonald: “Evaluating the Environmental Effectiveness of Alberta’s Greenhouse Gas Reduction Policy 2002-2015: The Identification of Key Areas for Policy Reformation”

BEST DOCTORAL DISSERTATION:

- Adam Cote: “Social Securitization Theory”

DON I. RAY PRIZE:

- Joel Isenstein:
“The Crass Struggle: Good Will Hunting’s Inaccurate Depictions of Poverty in America”
“The Golden Rule: Nonferrous Metals Mining and the Development of Guatemala’s Indigenous Communities”
- Shayna Lawrie: “An Analysis of Microfinance in the Third World: Money does not buy Empowerment”
- Jennessa Wiens: “First Nations Participation in Canadian Federal Elections”
- John Gabriel Cabayao: “Indigenising Democracy: A Bolivian Experiment in Social Democracy”
- Mac Stephen: “State Failure and International Security”