University of Calgary Eyes High Postdoctoral Fellow in Gender and Political Behavior

A dynamic research team, under the leadership of Melanee Thomas at the University of Calgary, is seeking an exceptional postdoctoral fellow to join our project exploring the links between gender, stereotypes, and political attitudes.

The postdoctoral fellowship would be funded through the University of Calgary Eyes High Postdoctoral fellowship program. The position pays $50,000/year plus benefits for one year, with a possibility of renewal. Support for research and travel also available.

Requirements:

• PhD in Political Science or related field.
• Demonstrated research expertise in gender, political behavior, or political psychology.
• Advanced methodological skills in one or more of the following: survey research, experimental methods, quantitative content analysis, physiological testing. Particular emphasis is placed on survey data analysis and experimental methods.
• Ability to relocate to Calgary, AB for July 1, 2017 (pending any necessary immigration documents)
• Ability to read and write in French would be an asset, but not required.

Start Date:

July 1, 2017

To Apply:

Please send applications to Melanee Thomas (thomasm@ucalgary.ca). All applicants should provide a current CV and a cover letter explaining their research plans and fit with the team.

The application should also arrange for two letters of recommendations to be sent directly to Melanee Thomas via email, with the applicant’s name in the Subject line.